The Monmouth County Human Relations Commission recently presented its third annual Earl Thomas Teasley Humanitarian Award to Dale Daniels, executive director of the Center of Holocaust, Human Rights and Genocide Education at Brookdale Community College (chhange) in Middletown for her service to the center and its activities, including programs on immigration, gender inequality, modern-day slavery and incarceration.

The ceremony took place at the Monmouth County Agriculture Building in Freehold.

Chhange, a participant in the National Endowment for the Arts' Big Read program, selected "A Lesson Before Dying" by Ernest J. Gaines for Monmouth County.

A teleconference with Gaines will take place April 22 at Brookdale.

Earl Teasley, for whom the award is named, was chairman of the commission at the time of his death in April 2010.
