- I. The Call to Order was followed by the Salute to the Flag.
- II. The March 2012 Meeting Minutes were approved without changes.
- III. Treasurer's Report: There have been no recent expenditures to report.
- IV. Standing Committees and Support Teams
 - a. Membership: Seeking to replace the inactive representative on the membership from 180 Turning Lives Around as well as pursue a Haitian American Representative.
 - b. Communications: Reporting member was not present.
 - c. Incident Response and reporting: Reporting member was not present.
 - d. Resource Development: In order to help establish our presence in the community, please send relevant local activities to Kay Guadagno to be added to the MCHRC 2012 events calendar.
- V. Core Team Report – Police-Community Relations: Due to its large size, the workshop will be held at the Fire Academy on December 11th and 12th. Fliers were put up in the Police Academy to spread the word to possible attendees. Expenditures for the Commission regarding this event include food and lodging for the main speaker.
- VI. Unfinished Business: On the topic of having a Spanish-speaking option on the Commission's Hotline, call forwarding was discussed as an option as the majority of interactions on the hotline are indirect. We did not come to a final decision as to solve this issue.

VII. New Business: No new business at this time.
Meeting adjourned at 4:23 pm.
